It is about despair. There are no bad themes, just bad writers. Asshewalkeddowntheaislesherepenentedfeverishly. She covered the mortarboards with gold paper that matches the color of her wedding shoes. While I doubt that anyone, Eliot included, is capable of making sheep-shearing seem interesting, I will happily accede to your reductio by saying that if indeed she was such a consummate craftsman that she could write brilliantly about sheep-shearing, then she would be a great artist.
