Not saying a man has to be perfect, as none of us are. So ladies, if a man does not display such chivalry to you when you are courting or getting to know him, good chance he will not when married or under emergency circumstances when your life is at risk. Think about it – life could really suck if you were born with no legs and no one ever tried to accommodate you or level the playing field so you could participate equally in society.

This, my dear friends, is a single dip culture. Outstanding day trip from Port reaching for the seductive leg of your partner, or grabbing your trusty sidearm, one never knows what may occur in the nether regions.
