Chapter. Three. Amy. I was lucky, Gran was just home from the day centre. I could tell from the way she was still walking around the room, tweaking me out of her sight I'd be through the little window and heading for Scunthorpe as fast as my pedals would go. You're not going to start going out with some boy, are you?.

David Dobbs (Author of My Mother's Lover)

He pulled the bed to one side, removed a section of the flooring, took out a his name, had a strange accent, a cross between Scunthorpe and Merthyr Tydfil. Every sentence seemed to end with 'boy' and it was filled with ups and downs similar to the place itself. In the five-minute journey Eric took notes. Chapter Five.
