We must listen with an attentive ear; for it is a still small voice. Laurence Moore have insisted, the extent to which the United States has been shaped by Christian principles or even by mainstream Protestant denominations should not be overstated. Battey,ThomasC. For these antinomians, faith alone is the key to salvation through an unmediated relationship with the divine. From time to time, wavering and uncertainties could be detected among the orthodox magistrates, who for previous generations had served as unrelenting persecutors of Friends, whom they deemed to be heretics and enemies of civic order.
