As a whole, this anthology contributes a lively set of 21st-century voices to medieval historiography. Patrick J. MemoryandCommemorationinMedievalCulture. These voluminous texts emulate the Liber Vitaethe 'Book of Life' referenced in the Bible containing the names of the elect. While there are references to the reception of Augustinian thought alongside a brief consideration of Jacobus de Voragine and Thomas Aquinas, the text could develop from a synthesis of contemporaneous historical attitudes towards holy death.
