Its name—what passes not away; So, in their beautiful array, Things form and never know decay. No sooner had Hua-tzu regained his senses, however, than he flew into a great rage, drove his wife out of doors, beat his sons, and, snatching up a spear, hotly pursued the professor through the town. Another well-known immortal who used dietary techniques is Master Whitestock. Primary Energy Channels The nervous system in human beings is very complex and capable of directing energy wherever it is needed. It probably took considerable mental gymnastics, however, to deal with the observation that one's colleagues were dying left and right at an early age, without turning from this path. The purer and lighter elements, tending upwards, made the Heavens; the grosser priests are heirs to a past society where the diviners and shamans wu were venerated for their ability to communicate with the spiritual world — the world of the Lord-on-high, and of the other gods and spirits — to bring down rain to the dry earth and to heal the sick.
