While it is recognisable by its salient and intensified use of sensitive memory topoi, it depends on a historical context and the mediated discourse. Battisti, L. Popular illustrated literature on both sides of the Atlantic will be explored, from early travel books on the Middle East and landscape illustrations of the Bible, to travelogues of the American frontier, with a critical focus on the sources of these illustrations and how and why artists chose to alter them or not. Don't have a Kindle? It is both a portal and a digital collection of resources for the study of the Middle East. As director of XCHR he has organized several regional and national seminars.

The continuity and variation that occurs in this text is of interest, as the questioning of the interplay between content and form is essential. Mood in Maltese.
